

“A Sword for the Lord” Judges 7:20

The story of Gideon reveals how God fashioned from one reluctant recruit, a battle-tested prototype for a whole new generation of Kingdom Warriors.

These warriors learned that the secret of spiritual warfare lies not in clever strategy, cutting-edge weaponry, nor by intimidating their foe by sheer numbers of overwhelming force. Rather, they discovered that the battle truly is the Lord's, and it is won solely in the strength of His Presence. Even in the heat of the fray, Christ-like lives can be forged and released in the Power of the Holy Spirit.

As God imparts these things to us, may we also, with one voice, raise the battle cry,
“A S w o r d f o r t h e L o r d ! ”

Paul Anderson has been the Director of Lutheran Renewal since 1995. This past year he has overseen the birth of The Master's Institute, an alternative, church-based seminary program, and the Alliance of Renewal Churches, a network of churches that recognize the value of relationships and vision. He gets much joy in relating to and encouraging pastors, writing, and leading worship.

Francis Frangipane is currently serving as the senior minister of River of Life Ministries in Cedar Rapids, Iowa. Francis has been instrumental in uniting thousands of pastors in prayer in hundreds of cities. With nearly a million copies of his best-selling books in print, and with an expanding radio and TV ministry called, “In Christ's Image”, he is in much demand worldwide.

Greg Boyd, senior pastor of Woodland Hills Church in St. Paul, MN, is also a professor at Bethel College in Arden Hills, MN. He is a gifted, energetic speaker whose messages both inspire and challenge. Greg is also a prolific writer with his latest book, Bad Things Happen, And It's Not God's Plan, expecting a summer 2002 release.

Mark Herringshaw is senior pastor of Vision of Glory Lutheran Church in Plymouth, MN. He recently completed his Ph.D. in leadership from Regent University. Jill Herringshaw is an accomplished musician, songwriter, and worship leader. In addition, she educates their four children at home.

Brian Fenimore is the founder and director of Plumblin Ministries based in Kansas City, MO. He travels throughout the country conducting seminars on “Hearing the Voice of God.” He also is a teacher at the Grace Training Center, founded by Mike Bickle, and the Wagner Leadership Institute, founded by C. Peter Wagner.

Rick Joyner, along with his wife, Julie, founded MorningStar Publications and Ministries in 1985. In addition to their outreach through their many publications and conferences, their ministry includes: an apostolic network, The MorningStar Fellowship of Ministries; the MorningStar School of Ministry; their local congregation, MorningStar Fellowship; The Center for 24-hour Worship and Intercession; and EagleStar Productions.
